

FREE TRAINING AND CREDITS
For Landscaping Professionals

CARING FOR MANAGED OPEN SPACES

Presented by:

Penn State Forest Resources
CRC* Municipal Stormwater Partnerships
Weeds, Inc.

Presenters:

Drew O'Neill

B.S., Licensed Pesticide Applicator, Weeds, Inc.

Julianne Schieffer

*Extension Urban Forester, Certified Arborist,
Penn State Forest Resources*

Wednesday, March 7

8:30 AM to 11:30 AM

Ridley Creek State Park
Mansion Ballroom

Who should attend:

- Landscaping Professionals ◆ Public Works Employees
Tree Service Providers ◆ Grounds and Golf Course Managers

Topics to be covered:

- Mowing for minimal environmental impacts
- Creation and maintenance of reduced mow areas, meadows and stormwater basins
- Maintenance issues for wetter vs. drier storm water basins
- Invasive species
- Water quality and safety considerations for pesticide use
- How to get the most out of your trees
- Planting, mulching, and pruning of trees
- Responsible care and use of landscaping equipment
- Outside pruning demonstrations and practice, weather permitting

Check-in /free continental breakfast: 8:30 AM Program begins: 9 AM

Certified Arborist and Pesticide Credits available upon request

Preregister by March 5th with *Chester Ridley Crum Watersheds Association, crc@nni.com, 610-892-8731.