

LECTURE SERIES AT THE
GENERAL WARREN INNE
9 Old Lancaster Road
Malvern, PA 19355

Visit a Tavern that played an important part in the Battle of Paoli and enjoy Early American fare while listening to noted authors and historians talk on the following topics

$40 per person for each dinner & lecture (cash bar) and starts at 6 pm

- Oct. 11, 2011 Mapping the Battles of 1777 Sean Moir
Follow the movements of the British and American Armies, hour by hour, through the Battles of Brandywine and Paoli via a unique electronic map that brings these battles to life.
- Nov. 8, 2011 Stop the Revolution Thomas McGuire
In the Summer of 1776, Great Britain sent Admiral Richard Lord Howe to America in an effort to negotiate a peaceful end to the American Revolution. Hear about this fascinating story through eyewitnesses accounts of this meeting and why Britain's last peace attempt to her American Colonies failed. Books will be available for sale.
- Jan. 24, 2012 The Turtle - A Revolutionary Invention Michael Kochan
An illustrated talk on America's first submarine - The Turtle. It was designed and built by David Bushnell for the purpose of breaking the British Naval blockade of New York.
- March 13, 2012 The British Army during The American Revolution Dr. Gregory Urwin
Waging War in America was quite different from the wars waged in Europe. Dr. Urwin will give illustrated talk on how the British Army adapted its uniforms to meet the challenges presented in America during the American Revolution.

Sponsored by the Paoli Battlefield Preservation Fund and the General Warren Inne

For more information visit: www.Paolibattlefield.org
For reservations visit: www.Generalwarren.com