I have tried to send this several times now and it keeps bouncing back. I realize it may be too late now to add Sara to the agenda, but I want to give it one more try.

I finally talked to Sara Shoemaker at the Imaginatium. She seemed excited about the possibility of working with Parks & Rec. I have only a vague idea of what we want so maybe we should talk as a group.

She said she was available Wednesday evening so it might be good to have her at our meeting. Could we send her the zoom link when it becomes available? Her email address is info@projectcloudless.com
